HTC One M8 is a smartphone released by HTC in August 2013. The phone uses a Windows operating system, based on Android, and it is available in 8 GB and 16 GB internal memory. The main design feature of the smartphone is its exclusive 6-inch LCD (1366 by 2560 pixels) Super LCD 3 display, which was developed by LG. The main body of the smartphone has a corrugated metallic finish. It is also equipped with a front camera of 2MP with LED flash and sensor, which is capable of taking a picture with audio recording. HTC One M8 has also a back camera of 13MP with LED flash and a wide-angle lens for taking pictures and video. Other features of the device include Bluetooth 4.0, Wi-Fi, 3.5-mm audio jack and single memory slot.

KEY FEATURES OF HTC ONE M8

When it comes to the specifications, this year's M8 will be the first phone to come with the Windows operating system installed. With this, users can access all the Windows applications. The internal storage for HTC One M8 is available in two types; 8 GB with the user option to expand with an extra microSD card of up to 64 GB and 16 GB. design and appearance of the phone has been retained from its predecessor, HTC One, by giving it a similar look with the use of a corrugated metallic surface. The metal finish is done by wearing a magnesium alloy making the body light weight, but also enabling it to hold longer. The design of the phone is rounded on the front and the sides. On the back of the phone, users have the bar-code scanner as well as the LED flash, which will give it a beautiful highlight. The battery of the phone has also been retained for its predecessor by HTC and was available in 3000 mAh battery. we have to tell you that these prices are without taxes and tax credits, we know that you don't want to pay more than you have to (which in your case is $0.00) but there are many tax credits in your state and every phone brand, and model has their own prices

CNN journalist Jim Acosta also criticized video obtained by Axios showing a Trump administration official offering a suggestion to the news media to stop "the caravan" by having the migrants in Mexico and return them. "Why? Because his administration's been telling lies about the caravan for three weeks. He knows he can't use that justification to send thousands of women and
